WHEN DID YOU DECIDE TO TAKE UP MODELING AS A CAREER?

Modeling is a passion for me. I don't consider it my career.

WHAT INSPIRED YOU THE MOST?

This might not make a lot of sense, but my failure and the rejections I received starting my journey as a model inspired me to be better and try harder.

WHAT IS THE BIGGEST MODELING JOB YOU HAVE DONE SO FAR?

I consider every opportunity I get big because I learn new things every day. I used to focus on well-known brands, but I have realized that everyone deserves a chance. All those big brands we worship both started as these small ones. This kind of thinking is the reason why many graduates are jobless. Every company wants experienced workers, yet no one wants to give them a chance to gain that experience.

LOOKING BACK AT HOW YOU STARTED, WHAT WOULD YOU SAY STOOD YOU OUT IN YOUR CAREER?

Being myself, I am always myself, I know how imperfect I am, and I have accepted it. I don't want to be perfect, and I don't compete with anyone other than myself.

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR PERSONAL STYLE?

Simple and unique.

WHAT'S YOUR ROUTINE FOR STAYING IN SHAPE?

I do exercise, and i stay on a diet often.

WHAT HAS BEEN THE MOST FUN RUNWAY SHOW THAT YOU HAVE BEEN PART OF?

In my four years experience, the most fun runway was in Amsterdam during Africa Fashion Week Amsterdam 2023. Everyone was friendly and very caring, from the organizers, designers, photographers, Beauticians, and models. I can say we were one big family.

WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE TO SOMEONE WHO IS PLANNING TO START MODELING?

From my own experience, i would advice others to always have another career too and not depend only on it. Secondly it's important to know that just because someone you look up to was or is successful in the industry does not mean you will or will not. Being a model is not all about taking good photos or having a beautiful body and face, it takes more than beauty to be a brand. Lastly, self respect, respect yourself enough to understand that whatever will cost you your dignity and self respect is not worth it. Believe in yourself and capabilities, and don't let anyone make you believe that easy things aren't expensive.

FINALLY, WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS FOR THE FUTURE?

No comment.

The path to stardom!

Ais Eleshia, former Face Of Royalty Africa, Miss Kenya Inter and Miss Style World, a lawyer and businesswoman, is back on the runway.

My modeling career stopped in 2020, when i was diagnosed with kidney failure and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease. My world was shuttered and hospital became my second home. During this hard time, i was able to put a smile on a few designers and models from East Africa through my event.

East Africa International Fashion Week, written and published two books. Passion of life and Choosing Me. only three of my friends knew what i was going through.

I am not healed, and this might take more time, but as long as i can now breathe on my own, i have to keep going.

Not being able to breathe on your own and having to pay for oxygen has taught me one lesson, Life is precious. This is my second chance, i might still be living it taking medication, but as long as i am on my feet, i will do what i love. Fashion as and will always be my first love.

My first event was in the Netherlands on the 30th and 31st of August 2023, Africa Fashion Week Amsterdam. This is just the beginning as i await more fashion weeks in Europe.

The only advice i can give to anyone right now is to be kind. We don't know what people are going through behind their smile. Let's judge less and love more.

SKINCARE ESSENTIAL

What Is Niacinamide?

Niacinamide is a form of vitamin B3 that helps to soothe redness, reduce hyperpigmentation and aid in hydration, per the National Center for Biotechnology Information (NCBI). The great thing about topical niacinamide is that it has minimal side effects, per the NCBI. Furthermore, Dr. Henry recommends the ingredient for its soothing and anti-inflammatory properties, and for those with sensitive skin. “It contributes to moisturizing the skin, and it also contributes to fortifying the skin barrier and reducing inflammation,” she says.

What Is Vitamin C?

Vitamin C is an antioxidant known for its brightening and anti-aging abilities in topical skin care applications, per the NCBI. There’s a good chance you already use a vitamin C serum or moisturizer in your morning routine to fight hyperpigmentation and dullness. There are many different forms of vitamin C found in topical skin care; L-ascorbic acid is vitamin C in its strongest and purest form, and it’s highly effective in topical skin care applications, per the NCBI.

Can You Use Niacinamide With Vitamin C?

For years, it was recommended to use niacinamide and vitamin C in separate routines because vitamin C formulations weren’t always stable, Dr. Henry says. Furthermore, per the Indian Dermatology Online Journal, when a vitamin C formula isn’t stable, it’s not as effective on the skin, and when you pair it with certain ingredients, like niacinamide, that can make both ingredients ineffective. Vitamin C serums can become unstable when the formula is exposed to air and sunlight. A good indication that your vitamin C serum is no longer stable is if it becomes a dark, amber color.

Today, formulations have improved and sometimes, niacinamide can be successfully paired with vitamin C, but you really have to pay attention to the products you’re using. In fact, it’s highly situational, but your best chance is to use vitamin C serum and niacinamide serum formulated to be used together. L’Oréal Paris recommends using L’Oréal Paris Revitalift Derm Intensives 12% Pure Vitamin C + E + Salicylic Acid Serum and L’Oréal Paris Bright Reveal 12% [Niacinamide + Amino Sulfonic + Ferulic Acid] Dark Spot Serum in the same routine to target dullness and dark spots. This way, you can confidently use both in the same regimen because the brand has formulated them with the intention to pair if needed.

JOY ODINU

THE NEXT SUPERMODEL!

My name is Odinu Joy, popularly know as JD. I'm from Imo state based in Abuja. A fashion, commercial, face and brand model.

I started modeling 24th May 2021. I enrolled in Onyx Modelz, graduated as a professional model then decided to become a freelance model. I've struggled to be where I am today with a lot of training and encouragement from my friends and family. It's hasn't been easy i worked day and night, under rain and sun to be at this position right now. I'm still pushing myself to becoming a better and professional model.

Fashion is something that has always intrigued me, the statement it makes without a word being uttered and this is why I love modeling or as a i jokingly call it; play dress up.

Modeling is my way of expressing myself through fashion, bringing to life the many unique creation of designers.

My driving force has been to give voice and to speak the language of fashion with my body, I have worked with photographers in creating ideas and concepts that tells stories especially in the area of Africa culture. I have also modeled for fashion brands.

BILLIE SMOLSY

Billie Smolsy came to our Melbourne studio back in 2017 for her first ever photo shoot. Right away we recognized huge modelling potential in the Ballarat-born beauty. She was a complete natural in front of the camera and took direction from her photographer Hana like she had been modelling for years. Billie Smolsy has since gone on to sign with IMG Models and is on her way to becoming a global superstar!

CHARLOTTE ALLEN

I came across Teen Model Australia on Instagram and noted that many other teen models follow them. They showcase teens and tweens on social media and in their magazines in a great positive light. It's a competitive industry, but they have a supportive and age-appropriate vibe. They hold regular competitions and know a lot about the industry. By being selected as one of their ambassadors, I hope that I will grow my network and be noticed within Australia and maybe even overseas!

Queen DEMAIN JUDITH

FACE OF IMSU 2023

INTERVIEWING TIPS FOR A MODELING CAREER.

Working through an agency is the most common way for a model to get work. Doing well in a modeling interview is key to getting your foot in the door. Whether you were contacted by the agency or are going in on your own accord, you need to present yourself in the best light to make a lasting impression. This means you'll have to rely on more than just your good looks to ace the interview. Prepare with our interviewing tips for a modeling career!

Do Your Research

Research the agency, so you know what kind of models they represent as well as what their body style, portfolio, and other requirements are. This ensures you fit the criteria and are well-prepared for the interview. Many agencies put this information on their website, but you can also call them.

Prepare a Portfolio

A portfolio is one of the most effective tools an aspiring model has. Agencies may specify the number and type of photos you need to have in your portfolio. The minimum is generally one portrait photo and one in upright body position. You can also include simple poses such as sitting, profile and looking over your shoulder. You usually don't have to smile, but you may wish to have some pictures with varying facial expressions to show versatility. The clothing you wear should be tight-fitting, such as swimwear, tank tops, and skinny jeans. Do not wear any make-up in the shots, as the agency needs to see how you look completely natural.

Prepare a Resume

This document provides the interviewer with the most pertinent information about you at-a-glance. It contains information on your past modeling work, any training as an actor or any awards. Also a list of shows or publications you've appeared in, as well as any educational background you have in fashion or a related field. You can also include your body measurements, including height, weight, bust, waist, hips, inseam, dress size and shoe size. Some agencies though require you to put this information in a separate document called a "comp card".

Take Care of Your Appearance

Your hair, nails, and skin must be clean, neat and free of blemishes. You will want to look as natural as possible, so use a sparing amount of make-up. This may include a little bit of foundation, mascara, eye shadow, and lip gloss.

Practice Modeling

The interviewer will assess how well you pose and walk, so practice beforehand to make sure you've at least got the basics down. Watch videos and look in magazines to get ideas for poses, facial expressions and how to walk a runway. Try things out in a mirror to make sure it looks good, then ask family members and friends to watch and give you some pointers. Practice maintaining your composure in any situation.

Think of Answers to Common Questions

Modeling interviews usually involve some standard questions. These most often include questions about how long you've been modeling, any especially notable shows or publications you've appeared in. It may also be about the type of modeling you want to do (e.g. commercial, fashion, etc.), and why you want to work with that particular agency.

7 STYLING TIPS FOR CURVE MODELS

2. Define your waist

Cinching waists helps to project a slimmer waistline and provides an hourglass figure. It is recommended to wear high waist belts for shorter people, as it will elongate their overall appearances and make their legs look longer. Tuck the belts with loose fitted fabric to avoid the “bulging effect”. Avoid wearing thick belts as it can bring attention to the width of a person, which completely defeats the purpose of the cinched effect.

3. Avoid rounded toe shoes

Often rounded shoes can have the impact of making anyone look shorter. A look overall can be elongated by wearing pointed or open toe shoes. This will make the legs look longer and well-balanced.

4. Utilise strategic Patterns

Patterns can be a tricky matter when it comes to balancing an overall look. Bold coloured, thick patterns can give the impression of a different body size and can bring attention to the wrong body parts. Whereas, smaller and darker coloured patterns can complement the style and the form. For example, smaller polka dots can make the figure look a lot more flattering than bigger ones.

5. V Necks are the Best

V neck tops can elongate the appearance of the waist. V neck tops can help direct focus from any problematic area to the bust area. This can also make the look more feminine and playful.

6. High Waist Bottoms compliment anyone's figure!

High waisted pants or skirts with pointed or open-toe shoes are often great pairs that elongate the look, beautifully. To complete the look, wear a semi-fitted top which ends on the waistline if not slightly under.

With the modelling industry adapting and changing every day, the demand for curve models is increasing. The “body positivity” movement has prompted agencies and industry to start to embrace bodies of all shapes and sizes. Therefore, everyone has a chance to celebrate their bodies, both in and out of the industry!

With the curve modelling sector growing and changing, so is the clothing industry and people are becoming a lot more aware of what clothing suits their body type.

1. Ensure you get your sizing right

It is important to wear the “right size” clothing. Try avoiding wearing sizes that are too small for the body, as it accentuates the wrong areas. On the other hand, wearing loose clothes can make you give a wrong impression of your overall body structure and sizing. The better the sizing, the more flattering it looks. That being said, when shopping feel free to try out different sizes of clothes, as a lot of brands are known to have different clothing sizes under the universal size numbers.
